

A few of us met up in York. Pictures below

Ned Needham

I had an email from Ned Needham and he sent a few pics that will be in the next newsletter that I distribute but in the mean time here is a photo of Ned and his wife

Derek Keetch's Funeral

It is not usual to take photos at a funeral but while we were waiting around for Dereks family to arrive back from the grave side I took a chance of a photo. Well you never when the same blokes are going to get together again. The picture will of course be in the distributed newsletter later this week.

Barry Duckhouse

Arthur Taroni

Thought some of you would like to see the photo below. Its myself and Arthur (Geordie) Taroni. No he is not quite that tall he is actually sitting on a high table but the width is all his own. I only had a couple of hours with him but It was realy great seeing him again. We met up at a bowling Alley just out side Romford so it was not realy condusive to a quiet Chat.

Reunion Picture (2011)

again I had to add a few in after the main photo had been taken.
